LOW COST HOUSING ALTERNATIVES

Although it is recommended that you stay in University Housing for your first year, below are housing estimates and links for low-cost housing options for UC Berkeley students. If you have financial constraints, living at one of the following residences (all walking distance from campus) might be a good alternative. Contact the respective sites for more information.

Student Co-operative Housing: Rochdale and Fenwick Weaver's Village

The apartments (Rochdale and Fenwick) don't come with meals, so they cost less than the cooperative houses. You should be aware that it is very unlikely to be assigned to an apartment for your first semester as a Berkeley Student Cooperative (BSC) member although being assigned for summer housing is common. The apartments' rent differs depending on how many bedrooms the apartment has, as well as the apartment complex.

Rates are Per Person. Fall 10/Spring 11 Costs

Rochdale Village	Monthly (approximately)	Total for Semester
Studio	$699	$2796
Two-bedroom	$608	$2433
Three-bedroom	$523	$2091
Four-bedroom	$467	$1869

Fenwick Weavers Village	Monthly (approximately)	Total for Semester
1-bedroom shared 2, 3, or 4 bedroom	$626	$2505
One-bedroom alone	$887	$3549

Tables courtesy of Student Co-operative website.

The Board is currently working on budget for next year and expects a rise in costs that will not surpass more than 5%.
